HISTORICAL SOCIETY

During the year two of our former members have gone to their reward. Charles B. Moores left us several months ago. He was of a pioneer Methodist family and had the honor himself of being a trustee of Willamette University over 50 years. His knowledge of Oregon history was of the first rank, and his historic addresses are of great value. A few weeks ago Rev. M. C. Wire, D. D., joined the brotherhood on high. He was a familiar figure in our meetings and at Champoeg. As a preparation for the Jason Lee Centenary we desire to place as widely as possible the second series of the book written by our secretary, Dr. John Parsons, and at our request. It is called "Beside the Beautiful Willamette" in honor of the first house in the Oregon Country devoted to religion and culture, and presents in new setting the facts in the lives of our Methodist pioneers. Dr. John B. Horner called the book "An epic in prose," and it is a record of epoch making lives in the Pacific Northwest. It has had wide circulation for a sectional work, and we ask your cooperation in placing a few copies of the second series in each congregation so that our people may know what the Lee Centenary is about. It contains five chapters on the "Old Oregon Trail," which are of special value this year.

CENTENNIAL OF METHODISM IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Upon the call of Bishop Lowe certain members of the Historical Societies of the Oregon and Pacific Northwest Conferences met to confer relative to the forthcoming Centennial of Methodism in the Pacific Northwest Country. We herewith submit a brief concerning certain major dates and movements, looking toward a comprehensive series of Anniversaries, in Centennial observance of the coming of Jason Lee and the early Pioneers:

I. SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28th, 1930. It was on this date in 1834 that Jason Lee preached at Vancouver, Washington, it being the First Sermon preached in the Valley of the Columbia. We suggest that every Pastor preach that day on "The Oregon Trail and Missions—the Highway of the Prince of Peace." Bishop Lowe has expressed his approval. It will be a strong feature of an attractive program he plans to put forward in the Autumn throughout the Area. It should have national observance. We also suggest Evening Church services with Lantern Slides, Pageantry or other local available features.

II. APRIL 5, 1931. It was on this date in 1835 that the First Sunday School was organized at Mission Bottom, the beginning of First Church, Salem, as recorded by Cyrus Shepard himself. We suggest that the Board of Education, through its Department of Church Schools, cooperate in a great commemoration of the beginnings of Religious Education in the West.

III. THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1932. It was during the General Conference of 1832 that the first steps were taken to extend Missions into the wide open spaces west of the boundaries of the Conferences then existing. The Missionary Society was empowered to investigate conditions among the Indians and to establish Missions wherever possible. This was the beginning of definite Missionary authorization by the General Conference. We suggest that the General Conference of 1932 be requested in some particular service during its sessions to bring its tribute to the Pioneer Missionaries and, by legislation, encourage a proper celebration of this historic event throughout the church.

IV. JANUARY 1, 1833, John Ball began teaching at Vancouver, Washington. Later in that year Solomon Smith taught at Vancouver, Washington, and also in the Willamette Valley. This was the first school teaching in the Northwest. In this same year, 1833, Lieutenant Bonneville drove the first wagons through South Pass that ever crossed the crest of the Rocky Mountains, coming as far west as Wind River, Wyoming. Later they came to Boise and on to the Columbia River. Whatever attention may be given to other dates and other men, we believe this to be the first date for the "Covered Wagon" in the "Old Oregon Country." Certain commitments have already been made which lead us to believe that States and State Officials will be interested in commemorating transportation by Covered Wagon and the introduction of Public School teaching. School authorities may interest students in writing on these early and important events now of such great significance.

V. THE YEAR 1934. This is the Centennial year of the coming of Jason Lee and his first party. This was a major missionary enterprise. It was a great adventure. For us now it was "The Great Adventure," for all else bows to the "Indian's Quest for the Bible—the White Man's Book of Heaven." Therefore the American Bible Society should co-operate; so should the Board of Hospitals, Homes and Deaconess Work because the first hospital was established at the Mission; so should the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals because the first Temperance Society was organized at the Mission. "World Service" should be allocated co-operating responsibility and leadership through this historic period. Commissions should be appointed by the Major Boards. Willamette University has already appointed its Commission. These should all sit with the Commissioners and Historical Societies of all the Northwest Conferences in planning a comprehensive series of events for an adequate celebration of the beginnings of American Methodism and American civilization in the Pacific Northwest. We hereby empower the Historical Society of our Conference to co-operate in every possible way in thus worthily memorializing Jason Lee and the early Fathers and all Pioneers.

For the Historical Society,

W. W. YOUNGSON, President.
JOHN PARSONS, Secretary.

CHAMPOEG METHODIST DAY

Methodist Day at Champoeg was suggested by Bishop Shepard, and authorized by the Conference. A Commission was appointed to carry out the wish of the conference, which it has done for four successive years with marked success. The meeting this year is set for July 10th, and a program featuring the "Oregon Trail" and the ninetieth anniversary of the arrival of the Lausanne will be presented. The Commission is anxious to make this occasion an outstanding event, and requests the cooperation of the pastors and laymen to this end. Let us spend the day at old Champoeg, which is a short distance from the site of the mission founded by Jason Lee. Our report last year indicated a prospect that the site of the first mission might be conveyed to Willamette University as a memorial of the pioneer missionaries. This has been done. We are debtors to the owners of the old mission farm, and Hon. R. J. Hendricks of Salem, for this happy event.

W. W. YOUNGSON,
JOHN PARSONS

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IN THE LOCAL CHURCH

In presenting this report of the Commission on Christian Education in the Local Church, we proceed upon the conviction that any real education is dynamically more than instruction. Education is, in a sense, as broad as life itself, and synonymous with growth. We declare our allegiance to the older evangelistic passion and purpose of Methodism, and at the same time to the newer insight of Christian Education. Christian Education is not a substitute for evangelism, nor does evangelism make Christian Education unnecessary. Our need and purpose are to bring the dynamic of sane evangelism to the work of Christian Education and the insight and direction of Christian Education to bear upon all our efforts at evangelism. To such a task we are resolved to apply ourselves.

In the realization of this purpose, transforming the daily life and experience of the childhood, the youth, and the adults of our church, into the very likeness of Christ, all our forms of organization and all our activities, as well as the leadership which we engage, find their purpose and justification. Concretely, this means that we must think of our Church Schools, our Epworth Leagues, our training programs, and our institutes, as the means whereby we seek opportunity to share the Christ of our innermost hearts with those growing persons who tomorrow are to carry the torch of spiritual conquest into the multitudinous activities and institutions of the world.

The Conference has been greatly profited by the visit of Dr. Samuel L. Hamilton. His two brief addresses have helped us in the definition of our purpose and the clarification of our ideas. We commend the Boards of Christian Education of the four coast Conferences for their plan whereby Dr. Hamilton visited our Conference, and thank the Board of Education through Dr. William S. Bovard for its cooperation in making the plan financially possible.

We commend the resourcefulness and industry of C. I. Andrews, our Conference Director. His report already received speaks eloquently of the extent of his work during the past year. We register our confidence in him by requesting the presiding Bishop to reappoint him for another year as Conference Director of Christian Education.

We would express our joy and gratitude for the excellent response of the Church Schools and Churches to the support of our Conference Christian Education program last year. On the Rally Day Offering with World Service credit basis to have paid in a total of $1600 is an accomplishment to rejoice over, and points the way to an enlarged program of service to the Conference. Dr. Merle N. English, of the Chicago Office, in his interest in the development of our Conference Christian Education program, proposes to continue the subsidy from the Chicago Office of $2500, on condition that we fix our local Conference goal at $2,000 to be raised by Rally Day offering with World Service credit, and on this increased budget to provide at least part time assistance for our Conference Director, and thus enlarge his effectiveness. We believe such a goal of $2,000 can be reached by our Conference this year, and recommend the acceptance of the proposition. This means that we will need all that was contributed last year plus an additional $400. It can be done if all the churches that contributed last year do as well this year, and if the 40 churhes that failed to make any response last year, will make their proportionate contribution.

HENRY L. WEISS, Chairman.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Willamette University

Judged by every mark which characterizes a thoroughly good institution of higher learning, Willamette University clearly merits that classification. Location, equipment, faculty, student body, progressive adaptation to modern needs and religious spirit are exceptional. Its long list of remarkably successful alumni in every honorable vocation throughout the world is a testimony to the quality of alma mater. It is an immeasurable asset to the church and society. Willamette is worthy.

We commend trustees, administration and faculty for maintaining the highest standards of scholarship and Christian character. We must look to our religious colleges to provide leaders who seek the truth devotedly and to keep the faith unfalteringly. The prayers and sacrifices of our fathers and of those who follow after them as well as the serious judgment concerning what a Christian College ought to be justifies this pioneer institution in refusing to be so liberal as to be loose or so broad as to be thin.

The University contract with the General Education Board terminates October 1, 1930. It is the last chance for Willamette to secure fifty-four cents from that Board for every dollar which other friends provide. It is therefore imperative that the Forward Movement be fully completed by that date; and to that end we urge that all pledges be paid promptly and that we aid in the securing of enough new funds to insure entire success.

C. G. DONEY.

Kimball School of Theology

The Board of Trustees of Kimball School of Theology located at Salem, Oregon, has voted to suspend operations of the school during the academic year 1930-31. This action was taken in February in order that the faculty and students of the school might make such arrangements for the future as best suited their individual interests. The largest class in the history of the school is being graduated. The remaining student body to a great extent is planning to complete their academic studies. This, coupled with the necessity of securing an endowment of $250,000 by 1932 in order to meet the requirements of the University Senate for Theological schools, makes it expedient to face frankly the whole question of theological education on the Pacific Coast. In these states and Nevada, Arizona, Idaho and Montana there are well over seven million people with at least one-fourth million communicant members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. These have just begun to grow. Development and church membership will vastly increase but there is now no school of theology for the training of Methodist ministers within their borders. Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Baptists and Congregationalists are all in possession of institutions adaquate for this purpose. It would seem that looking toward the future there should be a Methodist school also, but it will be necessary to explore the possibilities. Theological schools occupy a unique place in the life of the church and the nation. We are certain that interested individuals can be found who will give largely to a program and institutions on the West Coast communsurate with our needs for Theological education. The Board of Trustees of Kimball School is a legal entity and as such it is limited as to the range of activities it may undertake. In any event it can do nothing constructive apart from the support of its Methodist constituency, especially as represented in the patronizing conferences. We therefore address these conferences and ask for instructions. This communication is sent also to the California conferences for such use as they may see fit to make of it.

The alternate policies so far suggested include:

A. The resumption and strengthening of the program at Kimball School.

B. The establishment of a Methodist School for all the Pacific Coast.

C. An arrangement might be perfected with the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley—which was originally started by the Congregationalists but is now non-denominational with Methodists represented on the faculty, the student body and its Board of Trustees—by which our Methodist training might be done in that institution. Whether it should become an integral part thereof or should be a separate institution with close correlation would have to be determined later.

D. The establishment of a Kimball Foundation for Theological study. The purpose of this Foundation would be to furnish scholarships to promising young men from this section who have been recommended by the conference Boards of Examiners and the respective Bishops, and thus make it possible for them to take their theological training elsewhere. In order that they might return to the Northwest for work, the scholarships would be given in the form of a loan to be cancelled after the student has rendered a certain term of service in the territory specified.

The Board of Trustees would greatly appreciate receiving an expression of the views of the patronizing conferences upon these suggestions and any others that may occur to them and it would suggest the propriety of appointing three commissioners to represent each conference in order that unitedly they may study the possibilities that are open and make definite recommendations for the future. It would seem to be wise that the California and the Southern California conferences should also appoint such commissioners in order that the question may be studied from a coastwise point of view. Trusting that you may assist in this vitally important matter, we are,

By E. L. MILLS, President.

WESLEY FOUNDATION OF OREGON

The past nine months has witnessed the active prosecution of work sponsored by the Foundation at Ashland, Independence, Eugene and Corvallis. Only the last named has had a full time worker.

At ASHLAND the local Foundation has increased in membership by ten and there has been an average attendance of 28 at Sunday evening forum sessions. These are preceded by a fellowship hour. The second Friday night of each month was observed in a social way and singing tours to sick and shut-ins were made on the third Sunday afternoon of each month. Several times the Foundation had complete charge of the Sunday evening service. A senior banquet was given toward the end of the year for normal school students who were leaving and for high school seniors who will enter next fall. Ralph Fullerton is president of the local organization. George V. Fallis is pastor.

In doing Methodist work in the normal school at MONMOUTH we are handicapped by the fact that our nearest church is at Independence two miles away. For some years students were transported in a bus to Independence, but during the past year a better plan has been worked out. A form of cooperation has been arranged with the Evangelical church at Monmouth by which there is a Methodist Student class on Sunday mornings in that church and social affairs on Friday evenings. This has involved considerable extra labor on the part of the pastor at Independence, Rev. E. G. Ranton, and some decrease in contributions to the local church as contributions from Methodists living in Monmouth have been deflected to the work there. It is highly important that the Methodists of the state shall stand behind this project so that neither the pastor nor the church will suffer unduly in performing this statewide service.

At EUGENE it was decided to try the plan of student counsellors instead of having a full time worker. Miss Margaret Edmunson and Mr. Wilbur Sohm were the counsellors chosen. They have done hard work and success has been as great as could reasonably have been anticipated. Local faculty members have given much assistance. One of the most interesting activities of the year was the Newport Retreat when about fifty of the Wesley members went to Newport for a week end and enjoyed fellowship, play and worship and on the way back visited the Corvallis Foundation and participated in the Sunday evening service with it. The cost of the workers and of local incidentals has been about $750, all of which had to be raised locally except the amount which was paid by the churches of the conference. For next year a full time worker is desired and the Wesley Foundation of Oregon at its meeting on June 23rd gave careful consideration to the proposal and heartily commended it to the Wesley Foundation Joint Committee. Roy L. Smith, pastor, has entered heartily into the work.

Miss Mildred Bartholomew is just closing her seventh year of service as Wesley Foundation worker at Oregon State College, at CORVALLIS. Of the 660 students expressing a Methodist preference, more than four hundred have been reached during the year. This is probably a larger number than that served by any other Foundation in the Northwest. Much help has been given the work by the local faculty administration cmomittee. The able pastor of this church, Rev. James E. Milligan, reports some difficulty in keeping his people convinced of the ethical integrity of Oregon Methodists as a whole. For the most part the pledges made to the building fund by the churches of the conference remain unpaid and the overburdened Methodists at Corvallis have had to pay nearly $6,000 of interest on money borrowed to take the place of the amount promised. No giving is more sacrificial than that of our people at Corvallis and that fact, together with their strategic location amply entitles them to the substantial support of Oregon Methodists.

Reports from the treasurer, Mr. C. W. DeGraff, indicate that somewhat less has been received from the charges so far this year than last year at a corresponding date. We trust that district superintendents will take this matter up at all first quarterly conferences and get it included in the budgets of all our churches. In this way a creditable showing can be made for the last year of our three-year program.

We nominate as trustees of the Wesley Foundation of Oregon, terms to expire in 1933: D. H. Leech, E. L. Mills, A. A. Schramm, B. V. Wright.

In order to avoid such ignorance as was recently shown by the members of at least two quarterly conferences, who claimed never to have heard of the Wesley Foundation of Oregon, we print again the plan under which the Foundation is now operating:

"This new plan and program of Foundation finance shall be extended over a period of three years, and shall represent our conscientious effort to meet our entire obligation, amounting now to four thousand dollars ($4,000) per year for building and one thousand dollars ($1,000) per year for maintenance at Corvallis, and a total of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per year for maintenance at Eugene. Conference Wesley Foundation funds shall be divided at the ratio of one (1) for Eugene to five (5) for Corvallis. Twenty per cent (20%) of the total amount allocated to Corvallis may be used for maintenance purposes, the remaining eighty per cent (80%) for the building."

EDWARD LAIRD MILLS, President.

A. A. SCHRAMM, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

It is not our purpose to take time just now for an extended report. The Commission on Christian Education in the Local Church has appointed a committee to prepare a brief recommendation for your consideration later in the week.

However, we believe that the Conference is interested in the activities of the year, the present status of the Rally Day Fund, and the future plans of the Commission.

Support

Our Fiscal year has for some time covered from July 1 to June 30, so that the nine months Conference year has not affected us in this regard. However, it should be remembered that this year is the first time that we have been providing any considerable item of local support through the Rally Day Offering—and returns from this offering were not available for our work until close to January 1st. Thus the income from this year's Rally Day Offering was forced to cover financial needs reaching back six months prior to its availability.

This year's budget contemplated the raising and expenditure of $3500. Two thousand dollars of this was to come from Chicago, and $1500 was to be raised through Rally Day (according to Conference action last fall). Approximately $1600 was raised through Rally Day; and after the adjournment of last Conference, the Chicago Board voluntarily retracted its threat to reduce our subsidy from $2500 to $2000. So that from June 30, 1929 to July 1, 1930, we have had at our disposal slightly more than our budget contemplated.

Dr. English has declared his intention to continue our subsidy at $2500 for the coming year, but with the specification that we raise locally $2000. (again largely through the Rally Day Offering with World Service Credit), to the end that we may be able to plan a total budget for this year of $4500, thus extending the work through the opening of an office and the employment of a part time secretary. Be it observed that this could be done on the basis of last year's asking, if ALL the charges of the Conference would respond as generously as did the majority this past year.

A suitable recommendation covering this item will be presented by the commission later in the Conference.

Activities

According to the instruction of the Commission one year ago, inasmuch as this has been our first year of giving full time service to the field, the major emphasis has been to make as many contacts as possible (without neglecting interests already under way) with such sections of the Conference as could not reasonably be reached while we were anchored to a two or three day teaching schedule in Salem. Accordingly, in company with Dr. Marcy, practically all of the Southern District has been covered this year, mostly by afternoon and evening meetings; but in some cases by two or three day "Coaching Conferences," and in two cases with six-day Training Schools.

This has involved (including visits on the other districts) contacts with 46 separate churches, some of them for two, and in some cases as many as six, occasions.

To detail this activity:

4 Standard Training Schools have been held.
5 three day coaching conferences.
8 special group meetings, planned in conjunction with the district superintendents.
6 Conventions (E.L.) have been participated in.
1 Mid-Year E. L. Institute (Teaching course in Methods).
22 Commission, Committee, or Council meetings have been attended.
15 Special group meetings for workers with Young People (Known as the Kirkpatrick meetings).
4 "Bert Smith Brotherhood" meetings participated in.
1 E. L. Rally promoted and attended.
10 days spent in the National Field Workers Seminar in Evanston, Illinois.
1 Normal Training School for D. V. C. S. workers promoted.
3 Summer E. L. Institutes are now under way; in every case the Conference Director has given such help as the way seemed open to offer.

The Conference Director is also serving as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Seabeck Training Conference, which this year is being enlarged through the cooperation of the Missionary Education Movement and the International Council of Religious Education, and is to be held July 22-Aug. 1st.

C. I. ANDREWS.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS COMMISSION

Your committee presents the following recommendations for the committee's report to the Annual Conference:

1. That we launch a vigorous campaign for an adequate endowment for Conference Claimants during the conference year 1931-1932.
2. That at this conference due notice be served on all other organizations and conference interests that the field be cleared for the Conference Claimants and that the right of way will be given to it for its intensive campaign.
3. That the Commission select a man as Executive Secretary, and ask the Bishop to appoint him.
4. That the Conference be asked to request the pastors and District Superintendents to open the pulpits of the conference to the Executive Secretary for the presentation of the cause, and that the fullest co-operation be given in the prosecution of his task.
5. The selection of a committee of six, three from the Conference Claimants Commission and three from the trustees of the Oregon Conference Permanent Endowment Fund, looking toward the merger of the two organizations into one strong organization with all iterests unified.
6. That we invite Dr. Farmer, Corresponding Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Fund, to send us help, first, to make a survey of our conditions and needs, and, second, to furnish help to put on the intensive campaign, and that the conference appoint a committee to co-operate with Dr. Farmer in making the survey and to study the new pension plan, and on the basis of this survey and study, this committee to report to the next Annual Conference the amount which we will ask for the campaign.

T. H. TEMPLE, Chairman.

THE COMMITTEE ON WORLD SERVICE

It is with a distinct note of exultation and victory that we bring this report. In spite of the shortness of this Conference year, and in spite of the general dullness of business conditions, the Oregon Conference has brought, in these nine months a gift for World Service of $44,751.00, a 13% increase over the rate of giving last year. This evidence of the loyalty of our people to the great missionary and educational and reform enterprises of their church stirs our enthusiasm and increases our faith in them.

This is a good time to remember, however, that we must, in the final analysis measure ourselves and our achievements, not by others, nor by our own past, but by our highest ideals for ourselves, and by the fullness of our possibilities and obligations. We therefore, are glad to call attention to the opportunities the coming year offers for wider knowledge of and closer contacts with our World Service enterprises.

We would urge as a primary activity upon the part of every minister and church the carrying on during the year of a program of education by a thorough distribution of material secured from the World Service at 740 Rush Street, and by the use of the Sunday School, and the prayer meeting as an opportunity for such education. Many of these materials can be had for the asking. We can not maintain our giving and sacrifice beyond our knowledge and need.

We are also deeply appreciative of the fact that a strong team of missionary and national speakers will come to each District of the Oregon Conference in the Fall. The program will begin at 10 A. M. and continue through the day and evening. On the morning of the second day the ministers will remain for a round table conference. The following dates have been arranged:

Salem District, October 13-14—Salem.

Southern District, October 14-15—Eugene.

Cascade District, October 15-16—Medford; October 21-22—Arlington; October 16-17—Klamath Falls.

Portland District, October 20-21—Portland.

The Sunday dates will be arranged and announced later.

We, further suggest that in the interest of the justice and international understanding which lie at the basis of profitable business connections and successful missionary effort, the Conference heartily endorses the proposal of the Portland Chamber of Commerce that the immigration laws be changed to permit the entrance of Japanese under the quota law. (The number would be about 150 a year.) We also commend the announced intention of Congressman Albert Johnson, head of the House Committee on Immigration, to give the matter sympathetic consideration.

WILBERT DOWSON,
REUBEN B. PORTER,
F. A. SCHUMANN,
C. A. EDWARDS.
F. C. TAYLOR.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION AND PUBLIC MORALS

Your committee defines Temperance to be the moderate use of all things that are useful and right and total abstinence from things hurtful and wrong. We need a persistent educational campaign against all habit forming irritant narcotic drugs, including alcohol. If we could have a movement across the country of moral suasion and total abstinence pledges signed, it would supplement law and government with moral influence, and help to solve the liquor problem in our generation.

The church is just as much at home at fighting the liquor traffic and destroying the saloon as it was in rescuing the individual drunkard, and its work in so doing is as scriptural and consistent. It was our Master who said, "Every plant that my Heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up," and the beloved deciple who wrote, "The Son of Man was manifested that he might destroy the works of the Devil." The church therefore has a mission to society as well as to the individual. It has a message of salvation to the sinner and a plan of civic redemption for society. It includes the abolition of crucifixtions as a means of punishment, of the gladitorial exhibitions of ancient Rome, of African slave trade, piracy on the high seas, dueling, the lottery systems, the American slave trade, the opium traffic of the nations, narcotic drug poisons and last but not least the prohibition of liquor traffic.

This work of spiritualizing society is as spiritual, as high and Christ-like as the rescue of an individual. We need to pray the power of God upon the efforts of the anti-saloon and prohibition workers as we do for our evangelists. If we would prove that the church of Christ is not dead or dying, recreant or indifferent to the world's needs, there is no more striking proof of its power today than in its recent historic adventure in committing itself with all its interests and influence, its popularity and its prospects to the prohibition of the liquor traffic in the United States and its announced program of extending around the world.

The church has lead in this reform; it takes the full responsibility for such leadership. It puts up no white flag today. It furnishes temperance education in its pulpit, its Sunday schools, its leagues and its literature; and, when moral suasion was not sufficient, it boldly tackled the iniquity of the license system, made war on the saloon, secured local options, "dry-cleaned" the rural sections and towns, advocated state-wide prohibition, multiplied victories till we had thirty-three dry states, backed the 18th amendment to the federal constitution so as to make it national and furnished the sentiment-making agencies, the men, the women, the volunteers and the money to put into effect the best moral ideals of the land.

Prohibition today is often betrayed in high places, put into the reeking hands of the wets for enforcement, side-stepped by parties and its appointments made for a time a football between politicians, but has the greatest moral success of any venture of our age and we have no more tendency to let up on its advocacy than we had ten years ago when flushed with victory we saw a movement started in the United States that can never stop until it has gone around the world. Religion and morals are one. Religion is morality toward God. Morality is religion toward men. They are not separate compartments in our nature and they cannot be kept separate in human life. No church can escape its responsibility for the moral life of the community. There is no such thing as preaching the gospel as Jesus did and letting the morals of the community alone. The more evangelistic we are the more our gospel will get a grip on civic conditions, moral standards and all political work.

We commend the aggressive work of our own Board of Temperance, prohibition and Public Morals, the educational work of the W. C. T. U. and the civic activities of the Anti-Saloon League and desire to offer in addition this resolution to be sent to Congress and given to the public:

WHEREAS, the American motion picture is undermining the Christian influence of home and church, menacing law-abiding citizenship and misrepresenting American life to the nations of the world, and

WHEREAS, repeated efforts to improve the moral standards of motion pictures by cooperation with the industry have failed to secure desired results,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we cooperate with the Federal Motion Picture Council in America, in its effort to secure the passage of bill H. R. 9986 declaring the motion picture to be a public utility and providing for a Federal Motion Picture Commission to regulate the trade practices of the motion picture industry and to establish definite moral standards to be applied before the production of films which are to be licensed for inter-state and international commerce, the expenses of the commission to be paid by the license fee of pictures.

We most strenuously object to the tobacco advertisements of recent years in which women are exploited as a bait for the purpose of promoting a habit which threatens the beauty and strength of the youth of our country of both sexes and will use our influence to support every movement to abate this nuisance.

CLARENCE TRUE WILSON,
HENRY T. ATKINSON,
GEO. KLEINBACK.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

Evangelism is of first importance in all the activities of the church. The work of the evangelist is the chief commission of every minister and is the supreme task of every arm of the church. Our aproach must be varied as human needs. We commend every method that challenges men to face their relationship to God.

Reports show that at least 80 per cent of those received into membership on confession of fatih came from the church school. This is the indication that early youth is the fruitful field of evangelism. We urge that diligent attention be given in our Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, and other organizations reaching youth as agencies for producing decisions for Christ and nurturing these decisions toward the fullness and stature of Christ.

Revival effort and personal visitation campaign should be placed in the program of every church.

We call the church to prayer, consecration, holy enthusiasm, and abandon, that the Evangelistic mission of Methodism may be profound. May the Pentecostal fire with its refining influence and burning zeal continue to be the means of constant uplift and the bringing of additions to our membership during the coming year.

JOHN A. LINN

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE OREGON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of Trustees of the Oregon Annual Conference beg leave to present the following report of their year's work.

In the Conference Journal of 1929 page 127 "On the motion of A. S. Hisey, the church property at Merril, Oregon was declared abandoned property and ordered sold." The proceeds may be invested at Sprague River or placed in the hands of the Conference Trustees." Early this Conference year this church property was sold to the Presbyterian Church and the money used to purchase the church at Sprague River from the Friends Church. The whole transaction was carried on under the direction of the District Superintendent.

On March 31, 1930, the Board of Trustees confirmed the sale of the cemetery and church at Rock Creek for $150, and instructed the secretary of the Board to pass the deed to the property to the Rock Creek Cemetery Association, which he did.

On March 31st, 1930 the Board of Trustees confirmed the sale of the German Methodist Episcopal Zion Church at Logan for $150, to Mrs. Spatz and instructed the Secretary of the Board to pass the deed, which he did.

On May 12th, 1930, the Board of Trustees confirmed the sale of the North Howel Church to the North Howel Grange for $300, and instructed the secretary to pass the deed, which he did.

President Local Board of Directors.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

We, the members of the Oregon Conference, assembled in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Astoria, Oregon, in the seventy-eighth session do hereby resolve:

First—That we greatly appreciate the generous hospitality accorded us by the pastor, D. D. Edwards, and his excellent people. And we further extend to them our hearty thanks for the extraordinary provisions made for our transportation from Portland and the thoughtfulness for our enjoyment while here. The Chamber of Commerce, the Y. M. C. A., Kiwanis, Rotary, Gyro clubs, the Columbia Hospital, the Coast Guard, and all other organizations that assisted in this merit and have our sincere appreciation. We shall not soon forget Astoria.

Second—We wish to express to the program committee our appreciation for the presence of Dr. Samuel L. Hamilton, Professor of Religious education of New York University, Dr. C. L. DeBow, representing World Service, and Dr. Torbet representing the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and to Rev. John Benson, T. A. Stafford and Dr. T. W. Jeffrey, for their dynamic and helpful messages.

Third—We are glad for the presence and influence of our brother and fellow-member who stands on the battle line for the highest morals and welfare of the nation, Clarence True Wilson.

Fourth—We extend to Bishop H. Lester Smith our cordial welcome and sincere appreciation for his brotherly, statesmanlike and efficient administration of this Conference. His kindly presence is an inspiration, his earnest talks incite us to good works, his sermons are examples to follow.

Fifth—We desire to express our thanks to all who have had any part in making this Conference helpful and particularly to the local and state press for the fair publicity and generous space given.

Signed:

JAS. E. MILLIGAN,
T. H. DOWNS,
JOHN C. MUELLER,
J. W. WARRELL,
ALEXANDER G. BENNETT.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Whereas, we greatly appreciate the presidency, vigorous and aggressive leadership, and the compelling personality of Bishop Titus Lowe;

And whereas the Area has made a substantial gain in World Service, Membership, and all the essentials of Kingdom Building:

And whereas it is very desirable that our resident Bishop conduct the final session of the Annual Conference of his Area of the Quadrennium:

Therefore, be it resolved that we urgently request the Committee of Bishops on Episcopal Assignments to reassign him to preside over the session of the Oregon Annual Conference, which convenes in Eugene in June, 1931;

But, whereas Bishop Titus Lowe presided the first year of his residence in the Portland Area;

And whereas the peculiar conditions involved in the consolidation of the Pacific German Conference and the Oregon Annual Conference made it necessary for Bishop Lowe to preside at the Oregon Annual Conference during the second year of his residence in the Portland Area, thus exhausting the customary limit of episcopal presidency in any one quadrennium;

And whereas the Oregon Annual Conference held in Astoria, Oregon, June 24, 1930, under the leadership of Bishop H. Lester Smith has proven to be a well ordered session of high spiritual inspiration and uplift;

And whereas the membership of the conference have found satisfaction and delight in the messages and in the personality of Bishop H. Lester Smith;

And whereas we have unhesitating confidence in his administration and a high appreciation of his supervision of this conference;

Therefore be it resolved, providing the rules for the assignments of Bishops will not permit our resident Bishop, Bishop Titus Lowe, to hold our next session of the Annual Conference, we respectfully request that the Committee of Bishops assign Bishop H. Lester Smith to the presidency of the next session of the Oregon Annual Conference.

Signed:

JAS. E. MILLIGAN,
FRED C. TAYLOR,
D. LESTER FIELDS,
HENRY L. WEISS,
A. L. HOWARTH,
LOUIS MAGIN,
SYDNEY W. HALL.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Church today is confronted with a militant materialism and a revival of paganism. In many quarters sophistication has taken the place of spirituality. The prophets of paganism and of mammom are vocal.

This wave of modern atheism is a direct challenge to the Christian Church. We need not be afraid of all the organized hosts of evil if the temper of the Church is steeled for the fray.

The observance of the nineteen hundredth anniversary of Pentecost has, we believe, brought new courage and power for the battle. But Pentecost should not be simply a celebration but a continuing experience. Let it find expression in a burning spirit of evangelism, missionary endeavor and faithful teaching of the young the spiritual interpretation of life.

At some points the Church seems to be retreating, but we believe it is only temporary. The heart of the Methodist Church is sound. The triumphal march of Christianity has only begun. Following our great leader, we will steadily advance to the ultimate victory that is absolutely promised in the Word of God.

We urge the observance by all our churches of September 14, as "Go to Church" Sunday and Rally Day as proposed by our Resident Bishop.

ROY LESLIE SMITH,
H. T. ATKINSON.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF STEWARDS

FRED C. TAYLOR.....Chairman
FRANK JAMES .....Secretary
SIDNEY W. HALL.....Treasurer

We have this year, 100 claimants—53 men, 38 women, and 9 children, which is an increase of 1 over last year.

The 53 retired ministers have a total of 1577 years of service according to the records of the Board of Pensions and Relief in Chicago, which at the Disciplinary Claim of $18 a year aggregates $28,386.

The 38 women have a total of 807 annuity years, according to the records of the Board of Pensions and Relief with a claim of three-fourths of the Disciplinary rate of $18 a year, amounting to $10,897.

The 9 children have a total of ~~174~~ years with a claim of one-fourth of their fathers' years, amounting to $782.

A grand total of 100 claimants having the equivalent of 2225 full yers which at the Disciplinary rate of $18 or 1% of the average salary last year makes a claim of $40,065.

Of these, two men have relinquished their annuity of 20 years, amounting to $300 and 2 widows have relinquished their annuity of 60 years amounting to $674, or a total of $974 relinquished to the Conference for the distribution to needy cases.

In addition to our annuity claim we have a claim for special aid of $3,341 which makes a total of $43,406.

To apply on these Claims aggregating $43,406, we have this year only $36,984.61 which has come from these following sources:

|---|---|
| Book Concern | $ 2,232.60 |
| Chartered Fund | 50.00 |
| Board of Pensions and Relief | 803.00 |
| Annual Conference Investments | 4,464.00 |
| From Pastoral Charges | 17,783.00 |
| From Balance on hand | $11,552.00 |

This amount is only sufficient to pay the Claimants on a basis of $15 for each year of service, which is $1 less than a year ago and $2 less than two years ago.

We recommend that the apportionment to the pastoral charges for the Conference year 1930-1931 shall be as follows:

All charges paying less than $1000 salary shall pay 12% of pastor's cash salary;

All charges paying $1000 and up to $1999 salary, 14% of the pastor's cash salary;

All charges paying $2000 to $3499 salary, 15% of the pastor's cash salary;

All charges paying $3500 and over shall pay 16% of the pastor's cash salary.

Resolution Referred to the Board of Stewards

In view of the fact reported to us in the recent issue of Pension Progress that the Oregon Annual Conference leads our denomination in its percentage of claimants upon the funds of our Conference Board of Stewards, our percentage being 34, as against an average of 20 per cent for the entire church:

Therefore, be it resolved, That we favor a plan whereby our Conference Members who might by reason of age be eligible for retirement, but who are still considered men physically able and otherwise qualified to remain in the active ministry, be permitted to take regular appointment which will serve to conserve our Conference Claimants funds and provide more adequately for those now on our claimants roll.

Furthermore, we suggest to the ministers thus favored that they relinquish year by year their Annuity for the years above 43 years thus accumulated.

JOSEPH KNOTTS, President.
F. C. TAYLOR, Secretary.
